ARTICLE 42 COMPENSATION

42.1 General Service Pay Range Assignments

1 2

- A. Effective July 1, 20234, each classification represented by the Union will continue to be assigned to the same salary range of the "State General Service Salary Schedule Effective July 1, 20229 through June 30, 20234" that it was assigned on June 30, 20234, except as otherwise specifically provided for in this Article. Effective July 1, 20234, each employee will continue to be assigned to the same range and step of the State General Service Salary Schedule that they were assigned on June 30, 20234, except as otherwise specifically provided for in this Article.
- B. Effective July 1, 20232, all salary ranges and steps of the State General Service Salary Schedule Effective January July 1, 20230 through June 30, 20241 will be increased by four percent (4%), three and twenty five hundredths percent (3.25%), as shown in Appendix F. This salary schedule increase is based on the General Service Salary Schedule in effect on June 30, 20232.
- C. Effective July 1, 2024, all salary ranges and steps of the General Service Salary Schedule Effective July 1, 2024 through June 30, 2025 will be increased by three percent (3%), as shown in Appendix F. This salary schedule increase is based on the General Service Salary Schedule in effect on June 30, 2024.

DC. Minimum Wages Determined by Local Ordinances

Any employee who has a permanent assigned duty station within a local jurisdiction which has passed an ordinance establishing a minimum wage higher than the minimum wage established in this Collective Bargaining Agreement, will be paid no less than the minimum wage directed by the local ordinance. The Employer will first consider the hourly wage of the

The Employer may authorize more than the step increases specified in Subsections 42.5 A and B, when there are recruitment, retention, or other business needs, as well as when the employee's promotion requires a change of residence to another geographic area to be within a reasonable commuting distance of the new place of work. Such an increase may not result in a salary greater than the range maximum.

42.7 Salary Adjustments

The Employer may increase an employee's step within the salary range to address issues related to recruitment, retention or other business needs. Such an increase may not result in a salary greater than Step M of the range.

42.8 Demotion

An employee who voluntarily demotes to a position in a different job class with a lower salary range will be placed in the new range at a salary equal to their previous base salary. If the previous base salary exceeds the new range maximum, the employee's base salary will be set equal to the new range maximum.

42.9 Transfer

A transfer is defined as an employee-initiated move from one (1) position to another position within the college or district, in the same job class (regardless of assigned range) or to a different job class with the same salary range. Transferred employees will retain their previous base salary. If the previous base salary exceeds the new range maximum, the employee's base salary will be set equal to the new range maximum.

42.10 Reassignment

Reassignment is defined as an Employer-initiated move of an employee within the college or district from one (1) position to another in the same class or a different class with the same salary range maximum. Upon reassignment, an employee retains their current base salary.

42.11 Reversion

Reversion is defined as voluntary or involuntary movement of an employee during the trial service period to the class in which the employee most recently held permanent status, or movement to a class in the same or lower salary range. Upon reversion, the base salary the employee was receiving prior to promotion will be reinstated.

42.12 Elevation

Elevation is defined as restoring an employee to the higher classification, with permanent status, which was held prior to being granted a demotion or to a class that is between the current class and the class from which the employee was demoted. Upon elevation, an employee's salary will be determined in the same manner that is provided for promotion in Section 42.5.

42.13 Part-Time Employment

Monthly compensation for part-time employment will be pro-rated based on the ratio of hours worked to hours required for full-time employment. In the alternative, part-time employees may be paid the appropriate hourly rate for all hours worked.

42.14 Callback

- A. When an overtime-eligible employee has left the institution grounds and is called to return to the work station outside of regularly scheduled hours to handle emergency situations that could not be anticipated, they will receive three (3) hours penalty pay plus time actually worked. The penalty pay will be compensated at the regular rate; time worked will be in accordance with Article 7, Hours of Work, and Article 8, Overtime.
- B. Time worked by an overtime-eligible employee immediately preceding the regular shift does not constitute callback, provided time worked does not exceed two (2) hours or notice of at least eight (8) hours has been given.

- A. Shift premium for employees assigned to a shift in which a majority of time worked daily or weekly is between 5:00 pm and 7:00 am will be two one dollars and fifty cents ($2.50) per hour or one hundred seventy four hundred and thirty five dollars ($435.00) ($174.00) per month.
- B. Shift premium will be paid for the entire daily or weekly shift, which qualifies under Subsection A. Shift premium may also be computed and paid at the monthly rate for employees permanently assigned to a qualifying afternoon or night shift.
- 14 C. An employee assigned to a shift that qualifies for shift premium pay will receive the same shift premium for authorized periods of paid leave.
  - D. When an employee is regularly assigned to an afternoon or evening shift that qualifies for shift premium, the employee will receive shift premium pay during temporary assignment, not to exceed five (5) working days, to a shift that does not qualify for shift premium.

42.16 King County Premium Pay

Employees assigned to a permanent duty station in King County will receive five percent (5%) premium pay calculated from their base salary. When an employee is no longer permanently assigned to a King County duty station, they will not be eligible for this premium pay.

When the Employer has determined that an employee has been overpaid wages, the Employer will provide written notice to the employee that will 6 7 include the following items: 8 1. The amount of the overpayment; 2. 9 The basis for the claim; and 3. The rights of the employee under the terms of this Agreement. 10 B. 11 Method of Payback The employee must choose one (1) of the following options for paying back 12 13 the overpayment: 14 1. Voluntary wage deduction; 2. 15 Cash; or 3. 16 Check. 17 The employee will have the option to repay the overpayment over a period 18 of time equal to the number of pay periods during which the overpayment 19 was made. The employee and the Employer may agree to make other repayment arrangements. The payroll deduction to repay the overpayment 20 21 will not exceed five percent (5%) of the employee's disposable earnings in 22 a pay period. However, the Employer and the employee can agree to an 23 amount that is more than the five percent (5%). If the employee fails to choose one (1) of the three (3) options described 24 25 within the timeframe specified in the institution's written notice of 26 overpayment, the institution will deduct the overpayment owed from the
